Huayi – Chinese Festival of Arts

27 Feb – 8 Mar 2026

www.esplanade.com/huayi

Dear friends of the media,

Dialects and dynasties—lately these are two aspects of Chinese culture and history that I find myself drawn to. The first has always brought a feeling of warmth and fondness, connecting me with my Hokkien roots. The second is something I have become interested in, through podcasts on the rich history of China's dynasties.

Both have provided inspiration for the programming of Huayi – Chinese Festival of Arts, which will be held from 27 Feb – 8 Mar 2026. Audiences can expect legends told through different art forms at the 24th edition of the annual festival, which continues to feature the works of top-notch Chinese artists from around the world and Singapore.

Our opening show in the Esplanade Theatre, Deling and Cixi, marks the first time that one of the imperial courts of China—in this case the late Qing dynasty in all its tumult—will be brought to life at Huayi. The riveting portrayal of the likes of Empress Dowager Cixi, Emperor Guangxu and the western educated Princess Deling, living in a time when the seeds of change were blowing fervently through the country, was written by the much-feted Chinese playwright He Jiping. This version that we are presenting has toured widely across China to much acclaim since its premiere in 2019.

We are also presenting a living legend, the award-winning Taiwanese actor, King Shih-Chieh in Le Père (The Father). If you have witnessed his splendid performance in Tuesdays with Morrie on the Esplanade theatre stage in 2024, you will believe me when I say there will be no one in the audience who is not moved at the end of Le Père. Created and staged by the acclaimed Shanghai Dramatic Arts Centre, the show is an ingenious yet deeply affecting adaptation of French playwright Florian Zeller's celebrated play about the physical and emotional world that people with dementia and their caregivers live in.

In addition, the festival will present a concert that looks at the many facets of Sun Wukong, the legendary great sage of heaven. We are stoked to work again with the Singapore Chinese Orchestra on Wukong's 72 Transformation, which promises to be a feast of traditional Chinese music, multimedia projections, puppetry and storytelling.

Folk tales and legends of the region are often mined by artists to create new content for the stage. We are presenting two markedly different productions inspired by such tales. Sun Son Theatre from Taiwan is presenting A Little Goes A Long Way, a tale for the little ones and families, inspired by familiar folk tales that speak about resilience and grit, which are important traits for little ones to pick up.

For the first time in Huayi, we are co-commissioning a new work with the Taipei Performing Arts Centre entitled Tall Tales: Bananas and Ang Ku Kuehs. One look at this title and you know you will be in for an absurd and gratifying ride. Taking inspiration from folk tales in the region, this work is co-produced by The Finger Players of Singapore and Shakespeare's Wild Sisters Group of Taiwan, and co-written and co-directed by Oliver Chong (Singapore) and Wang Chia-Ming (Taiwan).

Another first for Huayi is a science fiction story on stage. Originally written by Japanese playwright/director Tomohiro Maekawa, and now reinterpreted by award-winning Taiwanese theatre director Tora Hsu, The Sun is a gripping work set in a post-apocalyptic world fractured by bioterrorist attacks, which is so prescient for the times we live in.

Coming to Huayi for the first time is veteran Hong Kong choreographer and dancer Mui Cheuk-yin, who will be presenting a unique, tender yet moving dance work, Diary VII • The Story Of...... Based on her experiences rescuing stray cats in Hong Kong, the work ruminates on issues of home and diaspora.

We are pleased that the multi-talented Anna Lo and Rick Lau from Hong Kong will return to Huayi, having performed Tri Ka Tsai – A uniquely trilingual Hong Kong cabaret to sold-out crowds during the festival in 2023. I love to hear Chinese dialects being spoken in Singapore, and every time I hear someone speak Hokkien, it instantly brings to my mind an image of my smiling Ah Ma who only spoke Hokkien. And like many in my generation, my fondness for Cantonese came from being immersed in Hong Kong's television serials, movies and Cantopop while growing up. While the younger generations may not have many opportunities to learn to speak dialects these days, I do hope they will have fun at the second instalment of the three-part cabaret series, LauZone – A multilingual HK-style cabaret. This work is a musical love letter to the many languages and dialects spoken in Hong Kong and about finding one's roots.

Returning to the festival too is The Freshman, Singapore's beloved Mandopop duo who are celebrating 15 years of music, friendship and growth. We are grateful to have played a role in their development and it is our pleasure to work with them again to present a full concert by this effervescent and irrepressible duo. Other music acts we are presenting during the festival include the famed Chinese post-rock band, WANGWEN, along with two Taiwanese indie musicians, YELLOW and Crispy.

In addition to performances, the second edition of Huayi Dialogues is back, and we are looking forward to illuminating conversations with the featured artists.

Finally, Huayi seeks to put the ‘festive’ in ‘festival’. We are grateful to our audiences who celebrate Chinese New Year with us at Huayi every year, and we would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a bounteous year ahead.

Our heartfelt thanks also go to our Principal Sponsor Knife Cooking Oil and, Supporting Sponsors Berries 百力果 and Singapore China Baijiu, as well as Polar Premium Drinking Water for their support.

And since it’s the Year of the Horse, we wish that everyone who comes to Esplanade will immediately be blessed with good luck and health, and prosperity! (“艺”马当先，万马奔腾！) May you also find no shortage of connections with history, heritage and all manner of legends in the process.

TICKETED PROGRAMMES

Deling and Cixi

Written by He Jiping

Starring: Jiang Shan, Lang Ling, Xiao Yuliang
(China)

In the twilight years of the Qing Dynasty, the young Western-educated aristocrat Deling is summoned to the Imperial Palace where she comes face-to-face with the authoritative Empress Dowager Cixi and her constrained son Emperor Guangxu.

Worlds collide as Deling's sharp intellect and sincerity breathes life into centuries of rigid imperial tradition, shattering boundaries while bringing warmth to a severe, methodical world. Despite their differences, the two strong-willed women forge a special bond through tears and laughter that unites them in times of turbulence and transformation.

With a stellar cast led by Jiang Shan, Lang Ling and Xiao Yuliang, the legendary theatre production Deling and Cixi is a resplendent cinematic feast that transports audiences back to the opulent heyday of the Forbidden City at the turn of the 19th century. This captivating palace drama shines a lavish light on a deep-rooted way of life struggling to preserve its identity in the face of a rapidly approaching future.

Written by celebrated Chinese playwright He Jiping, whose classic Top Restaurant 《天下第一楼》 was presented at Esplanade in 2017, Deling and Cixi is a tale that transcends history and captures the spirit of a new millennium.

This production is a tribute by Fairchild International Culture to Chinese language classics.

Produced by: ChicPia / Damai Mailive / FIC / Baiyue Culture

Producer: Li Dong

Director: Szeto Wai-cheuk

Revival Director: Li Ren

Le Père (The Father)

by Shanghai Dramatic Arts Centre (China)
Written by Florian Zeller (France)
Starring: King Shih-chieh and Tian Shui

Quick-witted and sharp-tongued, André is a self-assured man who dominates any room he enters and steers every conversation. But lately, things are not adding up for the octogenarian. His watch is never where he thinks it is. The furniture goes missing. His daughter's stories stop making sense. And strangers join him for dinner. Slowly, surely, the world around him starts to go askew.

Le Père (The Father) is the award-winning Mandarin adaptation of the hit play by French playwright Florian Zeller that stars Taiwanese theatre master King Shih-chieh—who left audiences profoundly moved in Tuesdays with Morrie in 2024—and China national first-class actress Tian Shui. Presented by the Shanghai Dramatic Arts centre, the production has toured across China since 2024 to critical acclaim and commercial success.

Between hallucination and reality lies a journey toward love, loss and forgiveness. Through overlapping perspectives and spellbinding stagecraft that evokes a mind in flux, Le Père (The Father) leads audiences into the labyrinth of an ailing father's memory, laying bare the heartache experienced by any child losing their parent to Alzheimer's.

Written by Florian Zeller, one of France's most celebrated contemporary playwrights, the original production received the 2014 Molière Award for Best Play and moved audiences in more than 45 countries. Its film adaptation, The Father, won Oscars for Best Adapted Screenplay and Best Actor for Anthony Hopkins, along with over thirty international honours.

(2hrs, no intermission)
Performed in Mandarin, with English surtitles.

About Shanghai Dramatic Arts Centre

Quality·Creativity·Diversity

Shanghai Dramatic Arts Centre (SDAC) was founded in 1995 after a merger between Shanghai People's Arts Theatre (founded in 1950) and Shanghai Youth Drama Troupe (founded in 1957) to form the city's sole state-owned theatre.

SDAC currently owns three theatre venues: Arts Theatre, Drama Salon and D6 Studio, which are housed in Drama Building, the centre's headquarters. Additionally, it also manages Shanghai International Dance Centre's two theatres of contrasting sizes, Jasmine Theatre and New Shanghai Theatre. In 2019, the newly renovated Drama Building was infused with the fundamental concept of creating an "open" theatre, with special spaces such as "theatre space station" and "little dramatist's house" for audiences to rest, think and experience, in addition to enjoying shows.

In recent years, the meaning of "Produced by SDAC" has been specifically embodied in excellent production and an emphasis on the integrity of the overall performance. The repertoire and style have been deepened step by step, and four major brands have been gradually formed and developed in the field of artistic production: "Modern Original", "Global Stage", "New Wave", and "Classic Reinterpreted". The "New Work Development" platform was also formed. This production system has become a solid backing for "Produced by SDAC".

Under SDAC's unremitting exploration and practice, their productions can inherit a freehand drama view with Chinese characteristics integrated with different styles and trends of drama development around the world.

The inheritance of a theatre's history and tradition is not defined by a set of plays or a building, but more importantly, by its artists' vision and passion. The performances on Anfu Road have become a unique landscape in Shanghai. Going to Anfu Road to see a show, and trusting SDAC for its production excellence have gradually become a fashion culture, a way of life, and even a habit in the city of Shanghai.

An Esplanade Co-production
Wukong's 72 Transformations
by Singapore Chinese Orchestra

Hero, rebel, warrior, icon—who is the real Great Sage of Heaven? After a great pilgrimage, an ageing Sun Wukong looks back on his life and ponders his myriad manifestations.

The story of the legendary figure has been retold countless times in television shows, movies, anime, and digital games. Each version casts the Monkey King in a different light, shaping and adding depth to his mythical status, and reflecting the cultural nuances and anxieties of the time he was created in.

Step into the world of Wukong's 72 Transformations, where the Singapore Chinese Orchestra, led by conductor Quek Ling Kiong, explores the many facets of the global icon in an immersive concert experience. Written and directed by veteran theatre artist and puppeteer Benjamin Ho, featuring original music composed and arranged by Singaporean composer Benjamin Lim Yi, this captivating concert unleashes Wukong's spirit in bold new ways. Expect a thrilling fusion of tradition and modern flair, where puppetry, iconic melodies, and stunning visuals collide on stage, creating a mythical experience that is familiar, nostalgic and enjoyable for all who have heard of him.

Wukong's 72 Transformations is co-produced by Singapore Chinese Orchestra and Esplanade – Theatres on the Bay.

(1hr 15mins, no intermission)
Performed in Mandarin, with English Surtitles

About Singapore Chinese Orchestra

Founded in 1996, the Singapore Chinese Orchestra (SCO) is Singapore's only full-time professional Chinese orchestra. Led by Principal Conductor Quek Ling Kiong since 2023, it is known for its excellence in traditional Chinese music and unique Singapore flavour.

The SCO makes its home at the Singapore Conference Hall, and has toured major cities in Asia and Europe, such as Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Gwangju and Berlin. The orchestra made history when Butterfly Lovers, recorded with award-winning violinist Joshua Bell, broke into the Top 20 in Britain's classical music charts in 2023. As part of its mission to spread the love of Chinese music to the wider community, the SCO also conducts regular outreach programmes at schools, hospitals, and other venues.

About the Playwright & Director

Benjamin Ho Kah Wai is a Singaporean director, playwright, puppeteer, and educator. He is the founder and Artistic Director of Paper Monkey Theatre, established in 2008 to create bilingual puppet theatre for young audiences. His works, such as Journey West: The Crimson Boy (2023), Romance of Mistakes (2019), and My Cloud (2024), blend traditional Asian puppet forms with contemporary storytelling, often drawing from myths and folktales to engage modern audiences. Beyond directing and playwriting, Benjamin is committed to preserving and innovating puppetry in Singapore. Through workshops, outreach programmes, and inventive staging, he continues to nurture the next generation while keeping the art form vibrant and relevant.

An Esplanade Co-commission

Tall Tales: Bananas & Ang Ku Kuehs

by The Finger Players (Singapore) X Shakespeare's Wild Sisters Group (Taiwan)

Co-created by Oliver Chong and Wang Chia-ming

Fear slithers into a snake, glimmering with scales.

Pain exists like a fish, sinking into the depths of the ocean.

Waiting takes the form of an orangutan, climbing the cursed tree.

Humans become objects, and objects remember the tongues of humans.

Love and jealousy, trust and betrayal, greed and desire—

Within each tale, they moult and transform, reborn into new shapes of life.

This is a transformation of stories.

Imagination giving birth to stories,

Stories nesting within stories,

Weaving, coupling, multiplying and renewing themselves.

Between one narrative and the next,

New beginnings and endings emerge,

Ever continuing, never complete.

Following Blood and Rose Ensemble (2018), Oliver Chong of Singapore's The Finger Players and Wang Chia-Ming of Taiwan's Shakespeare's Wild Sisters Group reunite for Tall Tales: Bananas and Ang Ku Kuehs.

This is a cross-cultural creation inspired by The Decameron, where folk legends from two islands intertwine into a layered tapestry of live performance and puppetry.

The stage is a ruin, a world built from white plastic bags, cardboard, and discarded remnants. Among the piles of waste, forgotten memories and myths are unearthed, sorted, and pieced together anew. From The Snake Prince to Princess Tailan, from snake to monkey, from bananas to ang ku kuehs, stories sprout, mutate, and are reborn, becoming strange new bodies where myth, matter, and mortality intertwine.

Tall Tales is not a retelling of old myths, but a meditation on what lies beneath them, the fragile coexistence between human and nature, story and survival. When two island cultures meet across the sea, their stories migrate, adapt, and take root in one another, revealing how we tell the world into being, and how, in uncertain times, we reimagine, rebuild, and reinvent ourselves through stories.

Tall Tales: Bananas & Ang Ku Kuehs is co-commissioned by Esplanade – Theatres on the Bay and Taipei Performing Arts Center, and co-produced by The Finger Players (Singapore) X Shakespeare's Wild Sisters Group (Taiwan).

(1hr 30mins, no intermission)

Performed in Mandarin and some Minnan dialect, with English surtitles.

Admission for ages 13 and above.

Advisory: This production contains mature content and use of coarse language, recommended for ages 16 and above.

There will be a post-show dialogue conducted in Mandarin after the performances on 6 & 7 Mar, 8pm.

About Oliver Chong (Singapore) | Co-Playwright and Director

Oliver Chong is a multi-award-winning and published playwright, director, actor, puppeteer, and set and puppet designer. His extensive wins and nominations at The Straits Times Life! Theatre Awards span Production of the Year, Best Director, Best Script, Best Actor, Best Supporting Actor, Best Ensemble and Best Set Design.

His works have been featured at international festivals in Paris, Myanmar, Barcelona, Budapest, Ankara, Bangkok, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Japan, and Malaysia.

Oliver was the Resident Director of The Finger Players (2004 – 2018), and is currently the Artistic Director of the company. His published works include Roots, The Book of Living and Dying, I'm Just A Piano Teacher and Cat, Lost & Found. Roots was also read and staged in New Zealand by Proudly Asian Theatre in 2018.

About Wang Chia-Ming (Taiwan) | Co-Playwright and Director

Wang Chia-ming, founder and artistic director of Shakespeare's Wild Sisters Group, is recognised for blending experimental performance styles with popular themes. Working closely with performers, he actively explores and challenges the possibilities of theatre.

In 2018, his work Café Lumière was invited to the Tokyo Festival. In 2019, his work Dear Life was staged at the Festival d'Automne à Paris and later in 2023, at the Schaubühne Berlin's Festival Internationale Neue Dramatik (FIND), making it the first contemporary Taiwanese theatrical work to be presented on both of these major European arts platforms. Most recently, his international work includes The Bathhouse of Honest Desires at the Tokyo Festival 2025.

About The Finger Players (Singapore)

The Finger Players is one of Singapore's leading theatre companies, best known for inventively fusing traditional and contemporary puppetry elements, and integrating other artistic disciplines into its visually arresting productions.

Founded in 1999, The Finger Players is Singapore's oldest contemporary puppetry theatre company. Since its inception, it has been invited to perform in Africa, Australia, Spain, Paris, Japan, Hungary, South Korea, China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, and Thailand, to name a few, making it one of Singapore's most prolific international touring companies.

The Finger Players is a non-profit organisation with Institution of Public Character (IPC) status and a recipient of the National Arts Council's Major Company Scheme.

About Shakespeare's Wild Sister Group (Taiwan)

Founded in the summer of 1995, Shakespeare's Wild Sisters Group (SWS) owes its name to the fictional character in Virginia Woolf's novel A Room of One's Own, meaning to liberate women's talents from the oppression of patriarchy. Limiting itself to no specific issues or conventional aesthetics, SWS takes materials from all arts inspiring to create original theatrical works.

Through collective exploration, the troupe continually seeks its own distinctive theatrical language and style. In addition to presenting new experimental works and engaging in artistic and cultural exchanges both locally and internationally each year, it also remains dedicated to nurturing creative platforms, promoting arts education, and participating in cultural policy.

A Little Goes A Long Way

by Sun Son Theatre (Taiwan)

Filling the ocean to reach a safe haven—because some dreams know no limits.

Relentlessly moving mountains—because believing in change fuels our journey.

Chasing the sun to keep a single flower alive—because hope blooms in every step.

Across generations, stories have always brought people together. Sun Son Theatre invites all to gather round, listen and reimagine in this entertaining theatre experience that features its signature hallmarks of infectious live music and physical theatre.

Inspired by timeless myths and endless imagination, A Little Goes A Long Way breathes new life into familiar folktales of perseverance, resilience and grit, connecting them with the challenges and dreams of today. Through engaging storytelling, live music, movement, and puppetry, the performers bring the land, ocean and sky to life. Each story opens a “treasure box” of wonder, revealing a lament of crossing the ocean, a painstaking effort of moving a mountain, and the secret of chasing the sun.

(1hr, no intermission)

Performed in Mandarin, no surtitles.

Admission for ages 6 and above.

About Sun Son Theatre

Founded since 1998, Sun Son Theatre is a distinctive contemporary group in Taiwan that blends live music, physical movement and drama to create immersive performances. Co-founded by Chien Yen-chen and the late Leonson Ng, they believe in the power of body and sound as unique forms of self-expression. This philosophy drives their commitment to exploring creativity and innovation in theatre.

Sun Son Theatre thrives on collaboration, bringing together artists from diverse fields such as music, theatre, dance, and fine arts. This interdisciplinary approach allows them to produce works where acting, live music and dance seamlessly integrate, creating dynamic, multi-layered experiences for audiences.

Their works embrace a diverse range of performing styles, from indoor to outdoor performances, spanning ritualistic, experimental, and family-friendly theatre, expanding the possibilities of modern theatre. Rooted in Sun Son Theatre, it has grown into Sun Son Percussion Ensemble and Sun Son Plus, continuously exploring interdisciplinary performing arts. Sun Son Theatre is one of the Taiwan Top performing arts groups.

About the Director, Chang Wei Loy (Malaysia)

LauZone – A multilingual HK-style cabaret

by Anna Lo and Rick Lau (Hong Kong)

Where are you from? No, where are you really from?

A trivial difference? Absolutely not!

The dynamic creative trio of Anna Lo, Rick Lau and Yuri Ng sold-out their run of shows for the critically acclaimed Tri Ka Tsai – A uniquely trilingual Hong Kong cabaret at Huayi in 2023. Now, they're back—with too many languages to count—to share the next instalment of their hit cabaret series.

Anna and Rick perform in LauZone, an endlessly entertaining musical tribute to the myriad dialects in multicultural Hong Kong that are still spoken fluently mostly by the older immigrant generations, putting the spotlight on the bittersweet relationship younger Hong Kongers have with their ancestral roots.

A play on the colloquial Cantonese term “老兄” to describe non-Cantonese Hong Kong natives, LauZone is a melting pot brimming with an euphony of dialects including Cantonese, Putonghua, Chiuchow, Shanghainese and more. Packed with catchy songs in a diverse variety of musical styles and featuring lyrics that contain a variety of heartfelt and poignant perspectives, this is an unmissable evening that will pull at your heartstrings while making you laugh.

This work is commissioned by Tai Kwun and premiered in Tai Kwun Performing Arts Season: SPOTLIGHT 2021.

(1hr 10mins, no intermission)

Performed in Cantonese, English, Mandarin and some Chinese dialects such as Teochew and Shanghainese, with surtitles in English and Chinese.

Admission for ages 13 and above.

Advisory: This performance contains some mature content, recommended for ages 16 and above.

About Anna Lo Yee Kwan

Anna Lo is a composer, arranger, singer, conductor, performer, a cappella artist and producer. She graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Berklee College of Music. Anna has written for and/or performed with Hong Kong Sinfonietta; Hong Kong Repertory Theatre; Chung Ying Theatre; Hong Kong Dance Company; City Contemporary Dance Company; Hong Kong String Orchestra; Actors' Family; Theatre Ronin, etc. She was thrice nominated for her music at the Hong Kong Federation of Drama Societies Awards, in 2017 for Save the Next Song for Me, 2021 for In the Mood for Red, and 2023 for The Retransforman.

Anna was also thrice commissioned by Tai Kwun to create original cabaret works beginning with Tri Ka Tsai (2019), followed by LauZone (2021) and The Farewell Comeback Tour (2023). Tri Ka Tsai had two sold-out reruns, at WKCD in 2021 and at Singapore's Huayi – Chinese Festival of Arts in 2023. LauZone was first adapted into a dance version Home Sweat Home by CCDC in 2021, followed by a sold-out rerun in 2022 at Tai Kwun and a feature at the HKUST Arts Festival in 2023. LauZone was also chosen as one of the International Showcases featured in 2024's inaugural HKPAX, and recently appeared at the 2025 OzAsia Festival in Adelaide.

In 2025, Anna's new rock musical, She, the Boxer premiered to enthusiastic crowds for Chung Ying Theatre's 45th Anniversary Season. Anna also works in other capacities in addition to composing and performing on stage, including taking part as arranger, orchestrator, music director, and recently being arranger and band leader for the runaway hit The Impossible Trial.

Anna is an avid a cappella artist and prolific a cappella arranger/composer. She is the Co-Artistic Director of Yat Po Singers and Music Director of pop a cappella group VSing. Her song The Little Things in Life from the eponymously named 2024 show was nominated for Best Serious Composition at the 22nd CASH Golden Sail Music Awards. VSing has performed in cities all around the world and represented Hong Kong in many a cappella and arts festivals. Since 2021, VSing's original songs have received 11 nominations and 5 awards at The Contemporary A Cappella Society's (CASA) A Cappella Video Awards and Contemporary A Cappella Recording Awards. Their 2023 release Sel-fish won the Best Hip-Hop/R&B Video. Their 2024 release I Wanna Wanna also won Best Video by a Professional Group and Best Global Video as well as landed on the Metro Radio pop chart for 7 straight weeks and reached number 1.

Anna is currently Hong Kong Sinfonietta's 2025-2026 Artist Associate and was named one of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons in 2025.

Diary VII · The Story Of.....

by Mui Cheuk-yin (Hong Kong)

Internationally renowned Hong Kong dance icon Mui Cheuk-yin presents an exquisite and heartfelt solo dance work that explores universal issues.

In Diary VII · The Story Of....., Mui draws from her long relationship with stray cats to invoke ingenious choreography that draws you into a deeply personal exploration of universal issues such as home, country, displacement and migration. Mui leads audiences to find parallels between feline traits and her philosophy in life, and her heartfelt emotions are powerfully expressed through exquisite movements and gestures, accentuated and reinforced by light and shadow, and words and sound.

Mui Cheuk-yin debuted her Diary solo dance series in 1986 as a way of documenting her childhood in China, her physical development and her dance career. Diary has become an intimate and autobiographical collection of dance works that chronicle her life in dance and how, through dance, she has connected with the world. This presentation of Diary VII · The Story Of..... marks Mui's long-awaited return to Esplanade since she mesmerised audiences in the Esplanade Concert Hall in The Flight of the Jade Bird, presented as part of the Singapore Arts Festival in 2012.

Diary VII · The Story Of..... premiered in 2021 and was awarded the Outstanding Choreography and Best Small Venue Production at the Hong Kong Dance Awards 2022, as well as the Best Performance in Dance at the DarkChat Awards as part of Edinburgh Fringe Festival in 2023.

(1hr, no intermission)

Performed in Mandarin, no surtitles.

There will be a post-show dialogue conducted in Mandarin with the team of Diary VII · The Story Of..... after each performance.

About Mui Cheuk-yin

Mui Cheuk-yin has been at the forefront of the dance scene in Hong Kong for more than four decades. Her choreography has a distinctive voice and often mixes contemporary and traditional elements, and she has been described as the perfect embodiment of “east meets west” aesthetics. Her commitment and passion to strive for the best in dance have earned her numerous honours, including five Hong Kong Dance Awards and the Distinguished Achievement Award from the Hong Kong Dance Alliance for her dedication and long-standing commitment to developing dance in the city over three decades. In 2021, Mui received the Artist of the Year (Dance) award at the Hong Kong Arts Development Awards. The following year, she received the Award for Outstanding Contribution in Arts for her significant contributions to dance in Hong Kong.

The Sun

by 4 CHAIRS THEATRE (Taiwan)

- ★ Tomohiro Maekawa x Tora Hsu – A contemporary Japanese classic reimagined
- ★ Winner of the 2025 Taipei Theatre Awards for Best Director and Best Video Design
- ★ International premiere at Huayi – Chinese Festival of Arts 2026

We are destined to kill each other before understanding one another.

In a post-apocalyptic Earth in the late 21st century, the world's population has been diminished. Those that remain are divided into two factions: the Nox, the new superior mutant species who rule the planet despite their intolerance of sunlight, and the Curio, the original human species who now live under subjugation. With clashing beliefs and divided stances, the two share only one thing in common—the will to survive.

The Sun presents a dystopian future damaged by bioterrorist attacks, a fractured reality where people are not only segregated by intelligence and physical ability, but also by their beliefs in how they should coexist.

Premiered in 2011, The Sun is Japanese playwright/director Tomohiro Maekawa's smash hit science fiction fable that has been restaged multiple times as well as enjoyed movie and novel adaptations.

Now, continuing his pursuit of naturalistic aesthetics, award-winning Taiwanese theatre director Tora Hsu leads a phenomenal Taiwanese cast in reinterpreting The Sun in a post-pandemic context. This new staging reinvestigates how we confront divided and extreme positions in a fragmented world, while finding a way to coexist with those who are different from ourselves.

The Sun was commissioned by Taipei Performing Arts Center and premiered in Taiwan in 2024.

(1hr 50mins, no intermission)

Performed in Mandarin, with English surtitles.

Admission for ages 12 and above.

Advisory: Performance will include use of strobe lighting, loud sound effects and depiction of violence, recommended for ages 15 and above.

There will be a post-show dialogue conducted in Mandarin on 28 Feb, 8pm.

About 4 CHAIRS THEATRE

4 CHAIRS THEATRE is a Taiwan-based company driven by devising theatre pieces, original writing, and localised reinterpretation. Through collaborative processes that focus on the here and now, the company seeks to reflect the realities of everyday life, contemporary society, and lived human experiences. Since its founding in 2007, 4 CHAIRS has been a multiple-time Taishin Arts Award nominee and has presented works at major venues such as the National Theater and Concert Hall (NTCH), National Taichung Theater, and Taipei Performing Arts Center. In 2025, the company's The Sun received multiple nominations at the inaugural Taipei Theatre Awards, winning Best Director and Best Video Design. Selected by the National Culture and Arts Foundation as a "TAIWAN TOP Performing Arts Group", 4 CHAIRS has become one of Taiwan's leading theatre companies, known for its artistic quality, distinctive aesthetics, and strong audience connection.

Playwright | Tomohiro Maekawa

Playwright and director born in 1974. His style has a science fiction and philosophical worldview, and his production is unique, making time and space appear seamless. He has won many theatre awards in Japan. He also works on video scripts, novels, and manga originals. His masterpiece Before We Vanish was made into a film by Kiyoshi Kurosawa.

Performances of his works in Paris and South Korea have been well-received, and translated versions in various languages have been published in recent years.

In 2023, his latest work To Deliver a Soul won the Yomiuri Theater Award for Best Work.

Director | Tora Hsu

Artistic Director of 4 CHAIRS THEATRE, Tora Hsu holds an MA in Advanced Theatre Practice from the Royal Central School of Speech and Drama, and is currently a full-time lecturer in the Department of Theatre Arts at Taipei National University of the Arts, as well as a co-curator of the 2025 Tainan Arts Festival. He was selected as one of Performing Arts Review (PAR) Magazine's "People of the Year" in 2021 and was a recipient of the Cloud Gate's "Art Makers Project" in 2022. As a theatre director, his works span a wide spectrum—from Taiwanese originals and localised adaptations to popular entertainment and socially engaged theatre. His creative vision centres on collectivity, pursuing a text-based "new realism" aesthetic. Several of his productions have been nominated for the Taishin Arts Award. He received the Best Director Award at the inaugural Taipei Theatre Awards for The Sun, and his work is also supported by the 2025 Taipei Theater MVP Grant from Taipei Performing Arts Center.

Script Adaptation | Chen Yi-En

Chen Yi-En graduated from Department of Theatre Arts at Taipei National University of the Arts. Chen has collaborated with 4 CHAIRS THEATRE, KINGKONGWAVE, Shakespeare's Wild Sisters Group, Style Lab, Creative Society, Riverbed Theatre, Story Works, House Peace, Myan Myan Studio, Voleur du Feu Theatre, and Yang's Ensemble.

Crispy “I Love You x 100” Live in Singapore

(Taiwan)

Growing up is confusing, and Crispy knows just how we all feel. Celebrate the joys and bittersweet moments of growing up and falling in love with Crispy in a one-night-only concert featuring their trademark folk-inspired sound.

When it comes to bands that have captured the blissfulness and poignancy of growing up, Crispy is definitely one of the standouts.

From the fresh, folk-inspired sound of their early days to later works that blend rock, electronic, and more, one thing has never changed—their fearless honesty in facing life’s ups and downs through music. Along the way, they’ve written widely loved songs such as Where Darkness Ends, Sorry x 100, Youth, and Weaver of Stars.

Over 15 years of music making, they have journeyed from National Taiwan University’s Palm Boulevard to the Golden Melody Awards red carpet, and eventually to the 34th Golden Melody Awards stage, where they won Best Vocal Group. Now, they arrive at Huayi, inviting fans to join them for the one-night-only Singapore stop of their I Love You x 100 15th anniversary tour.

Let Crispy take your hand in theirs through their music—to cry together, laugh together, walk together, and sing together.

About Crispy

Formed by male vocalist Skippy and female vocalist Ding Ding, Crispy is a unique alternative-folk duo and a rare vocal group with male and female co-lead vocalists in Taiwan. Skippy’s bright and delicate tone intertwines with Ding Ding’s layered and resonant timbre to create a distinctive soundscape that is warm and deeply comforting. Their music spans a wide range of styles, blending folk with rock, pop, electronic elements, and a sample-based musical collage.

Crispy's songs celebrate youth while also capturing the beauty and heartache of growing up. Their lyrics resonate strongly with younger listeners, touching on generational reflections—the confusion of coming of age, the ache of farewells, reflections on reality, and simple, sincere love. To date, the duo has released three EPs and four albums. Their 2019 album Where There's Light as There Is Darkness earned them the Freshmusic Award for Best Creative/Performing Group. Their 2022 album Take It Slow, I Will Be There surpassed 20 million streams and brought them onto the 34th Golden Melody Awards stage, where they won Best Vocal Group. Their track Heading North from the same album was also nominated for Best Lyricist.

In 2025, they released their 15th anniversary EP Love Yourself, Like I Do and launched their I Love You x 100 15th anniversary tour.

WANGWEN

(China)

Your musical companion to adulthood.

Known for their cathartic live shows featuring their massive polyphonic yet delicately arranged music, Chinese post-rock giants WANGWEN make a return to Singapore after almost a decade for a glorious night of instrumental splendour.

Founded in 1999 in Dalian, China, WANGWEN is often mentioned in the same breath as post-rock icons such as Mogwai, Tortoise and Mono, and has been the standard bearers of Chinese post-rock for over two decades. Together, the six members—guitarists Xie Yugang and Geng Xin, bassist Xu Zengzheng, drummer Zhou Lianjiang, keyboardist Zhang Yanfeng, and trumpet and baritone player Huang Kai—have released 12 studio albums, the most recent being the live collection All Yesterday's Parties to commemorate the band's 25th anniversary.

WANGWEN has toured their brand of melancholic beauty and intense live shows to venues across Asia and Europe, and now they come to Singapore once again for another unforgettable show.

About Mui Cheuk-yin

Mui Cheuk-yin has been at the forefront of the dance scene in Hong Kong for more than four decades. Her choreography has a distinctive voice and often mixes contemporary and traditional elements, and she has been described as the perfect embodiment of “east meets west” aesthetics. Her commitment and passion to strive for the best in dance have earned her numerous honours, including five Hong Kong Dance Awards and the Distinguished Achievement Award from the Hong Kong Dance Alliance for her dedication and long-standing commitment to developing dance in the city over three decades. In 2021, Mui received the Artist of the Year (Dance) award at the Hong Kong Arts Development Awards. The following year, she received the Award for Outstanding Contribution in Arts for her significant contributions to dance in Hong Kong.

About Lee Chi-wai

Lee Chi-wai was born in Hong Kong in 1977. He is active in the Hong Kong dance community as a stage and lighting designer. At the beginning of his career, he was fortunate enough to work in the technical department of the City Contemporary Dance Company. During that period of time, he met many people and things that had a far-reaching impact on the future.

Now in a passive but concentrated stage of creation, he hopes to keep his head clear in this big era and insists on making works that he will remember later.

Design works include Chou Shu-yi & Cheng Chih-chung: The Center; After the Deluge by Kingsley Ng, Almost 55 choreographed by Chou Shu-yi, OnView:Hong Kong-West Kowloon Freespace by Sue Haley and SoLow choreographed by Lai Tak Wai.

HUAYI DIALOGUES

Huayi Dialogues 2026: Echoes & Reinvention

Huayi Dialogues returns for its second edition to gaze inward into the very core of theatre: its People and its Art.

In an era of fragmentation, why does theatre remain irreplaceable? It is because of the playwrights who gaze deep into humanity, the actors who sculpt time with their bodies, and the directors who construct realms of dreams.

Co-curated with Singapore theatre practitioner Liu Xiaoyi, this year's line-up gathers theatre luminaries from Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong, and Taipei. Featuring the legendary career of King Shih-Chieh; the literary universe of He Jiping; Jiang Shan's return to the stage; Nick Yu's cosmopolitan vision; and a fierce clash of aesthetics among directors from three cities.

Through five illuminating sessions, we will dissect the "bones" and "soul" of Chinese theatre through the lenses of Text, Acting, and Directing. These are not just lectures by masters, but a spiritual sanctuary for every soul who loves art to rest, reflect, and find new beginnings.

Huayi Dialogues* are exclusive to Esplanade&Me members only.

Tickets on sale from 8 Jan 2026, Thu, 10am onwards.

Huayi Dialogues with Jiang Shan: Between Light and Shadow

(China)

Hosted by Liu Xiaoyi (Singapore)

What joys and challenges lie shrouded by the halo of celebrity when a beloved actress steps away from the camera lens onto the theatre stage? The first session of Huayi Dialogues features a soulful conversation with award-winning Chinese actress Jiang Shan on what “returning” means to her.

A household name in China’s film and television industry, Jiang Shan has in recent years been a fixture on theatre stages instead, cementing her dedication to the theatrical arts with acclaimed performances in productions such as Deling and Cixi and Oedipus Rex. Hers is a story of passion and persistence and moderator Liu Xiaoyi chats with Jiang Shan to explore her transition from screen to stage to find out how an artist protects their unique and original artistic intentions in an age of fast-food culture.

This session is part of Huayi Dialogues, conceived and moderated by Singapore theatre practitioner Liu Xiaoyi.

(1hr 30mins, no intermission)

Conducted in Mandarin.

About Jiang Shan (China)

Jiang Shan is a prominent actress from Mainland China. She rose to fame with her breakout role as Du Mei in Addicted, and subsequently starred in numerous acclaimed television, film and stage works including Never Give Up; The Grand Mansion Gate; Conquest; At Forty; ER Doctors; Staying Up; and Deling and Cixi.

She is the recipient of the 22nd Flying Apsaras Award for Outstanding Actress; the 8th Huading Award for Best Actress (Urban Drama); the 7th Beijing College Student Film Festival Best Actress Award; the 15th Shanghai International Film Festival Media Award for Best Supporting Actress; the 2021 One Drama Award for Best Actress; and the Best Actress Award at the 4th Chinese Theatre Awards.

Huayi Dialogues with Directors' Panel: A Tale of Three Cities – Constructing Contemporary Aesthetics

Panelists: Roy Szeto, Li Ren, Wang Chia-ming

Moderator: Liu Xiaoyi (Singapore)

The grand narratives of Beijing, the visual spectacle of Hong Kong and the avante-garde experiments of Taipei—what sparks will fly when three distinct theatrical visions collide in Singapore?

Moderator Liu Xiaoyi joins Li Ren (Beijing), Roy Szeto (Hong Kong) and Wang Chia-ming (Taipei) to probe their artistic minds and souls. The aesthetic future of Chinese-language theatre is put under a spotlight through insightful dialogue and candid interactions as this panel of theatre directors explores how they navigate the relationship between the classic and the contemporary, and how their cultural roots have shaped their artistic vocabulary.

This session is part of Huayi Dialogues, conceived and moderated by Singapore theatre practitioner Liu Xiaoyi.

(1hr 30mins, no intermission)

Conducted in Mandarin.

About the panelists:

Roy Szeto

Huayi Dialogues with He Jiping: The Birth of a Good Story

(China)

Hosted by Liu Xiaoyi (Singapore)

Celebrated playwright He Jiping has skillfully straddled the historical gravitas of Beijing and the commercial agility of Hong Kong, creating much-loved works such as Beijing People's Art Theatre's classic The Top Restaurant and the martial arts masterpiece New Dragon Gate Inn.

In this dialogue, He Jinping shares her unique perspectives on finding stories in the cracks of history and her insights into the human condition as moderator Liu Xiaoyi joins her in a session that also dissects the creative logic behind the “Golden Screenwriter” and finds out how a truly good story is born in an era where good scripts are hard to come by.

This session is part of Huayi Dialogues, conceived and moderated by Singapore theatre practitioner Liu Xiaoyi.

(1hr 30mins, no intermission)

Conducted in Mandarin.

About He Jiping (China)

He Jiping is a consultant of the China Theatre Association; member of the China Writers Association; national committee member of the China Federation of Literary and Art Circles; literary arts adviser to the Hong Kong Arts Development Council; honorary playwright of Beijing People's Art Theatre, doctoral supervisor at Shanghai Theatre Academy; Beijing Model Worker; Hong Kong Six Arts Outstanding Female Artist; and recipient of Beijing's “Jinghua Award”.

Huayi Dialogues with King Shih-Chieh: Time, Slowed Down

(Taiwan)

Hosted by Liu Xiaoyi (Singapore)

A pioneer of Taiwan's modern theatre scene and fondly remembered for his role as Jiang Binliu from Secret Love in Peach Blossom Land, King Shih-chieh represents a significant chapter in the history of Chinese-language theatre.

In a rare dialogue session, King Shih-chieh generously shares the wisdom he has gained starting from his early days when he had nothing to do till his current world of washed-away glitz and glamour. Moderator Liu Xiaoyi joins him for an evening that extends beyond the topic of acting to philosophical reflections on life, time and the essence of storytelling.

This session is part of Huayi Dialogues, conceived and moderated by Singapore theatre practitioner Liu Xiaoyi.

(1hr 30mins, no intermission)

Conducted in Mandarin.

About King Shih-chieh

King Shih-chieh is a revered performing artist and a founding member of the legendary Lan Ling Theatre.
