FESTIVAL MESSAGE

Selamat datang everyone to Esplanade – Theatres on the Bay’s 23rd edition of Pesta Raya – Malay Festival of Arts from 9 – 12 May 2024! We are excited to embark with you on another journey through the captivating landscapes of the Nusantara, where tradition and folklore meet contemporary creativity in a harmonious dance.

First up, our two new works commissioned for this year’s festival revisit tales that transcend the boundaries of time and will resonate with both young and old. In Bawang Putih Bawang Merah, Teater Ekamatra reimagines a well-known folktale and makes their first foray into producing a work for our mid-sized venue, the Singtel Waterfront Theatre. For the Concert Hall, we have commissioned film auteur Garin Nugroho’s Samsara, a “cine-concert” that marries a vibrant, live electronic music soundscape with traditional Balinese performance elements like the gamelan orchestra, traditional dance, masks and wayang kulit.

In recent years, a new generation of artists have reinvented the musical genres of pop yeh yeh and dangdut koplo. In Hidup Pop Yeh Yeh! (Long Live Pop Yeh Yeh!), pioneering artists Dato’ Jeffrydin, Dato’ L. Ramli and S. Mariam join forces with ‘60s pop-inspired band Masdo to celebrate the legacy of this beloved music genre. In Dangdut Koplo Extravaganza!, two of Indonesia’s most promising dangdut performers, Ochi Alvira and Syahiba Saufa, will enthrall audiences with the infectious, hypnotic and soul-stirring sounds of the genre.

Join us also for Jalan Raya, a performance-installation by Zarina Muhammad and other Singapore artists inspired by annual Hari Raya visits, where audiences are invited to experience a different perspective on tradition and culture.

As we pay homage to the rich heritage of the Malay culture, honouring the stories that have been passed down through generations and the traditions that have shaped our identity, we invite you to immerse in the vibrant spirit of the Nusantara and be inspired by it.

DIRECTOR'S NOTES

Bali in the early 20th century, post-World War One, became an exciting destination for tourists. It was an era where early modern industry and tourism bloomed. It was also an era in which the entertainment industry, various school of thoughts, and artists emerged. Bali soon became a place where global divas, artists, writers, and scientists congregated. Anthropologist Margaret Mead, painter-composer Walter Spies, writer Vicki Baum, filmmaker Charlie Chaplin, Dutch painter Rudolf Bonnet, Mexican writer Miguel Cavarrubias, and American composer Collin McPhee—who pioneered the mix of western orchestra with local Balinese gamelan—are examples of global figures who visited Bali over the years. Some, like Bonnet, even spent most of their lives there.

This era synthesised many different cultures and thoughts with the locals, which gave birth to various new ideas. One of the results was the emergence of the style known as Balinese magical realism, which is prominent in the paintings of Walter Spies. Magical realism which was still growing and developing in Europe, found its way to regions of Asia and Africa. Therefore, Balinese magical realism was a jumble of pre-modern and modern art styles, along with Balinese mysticism. The outcome was something unique that is not easily describable.

On the other hand, the rise of the tourism industry, coupled with increased research and cultural development in Bali, fostered the emergence of talented local Balinese artists across various artistic disciplines, including globally acclaimed figures like Cokot (sculptor), Ketut Mario, and Nyi Ketut Reneng (dancers), among others.

Samsara is set in this era where a mix of pre-modern and modern era were jumbling within a strong magical realism dimension. Specifically, 1930s Bali was chosen as the backdrop of the film as it depicts a melting pot where diverse artistic styles collide. The film captures the intricate interplay of people's lifestyles and patterns during this period, encompassing facets like fashion, architecture, and art. Through its portrayal of Bali in the 1930s, Samsara emerges as a captivating world characterised by a fusion of cultures and a distinct style of magical realism.

The world of Bali is steeped in magical realism. The seen and unseen. This characteristic is still relevant to life across Indonesia in general, where the seen and unseen coexist, evoking feelings of absurdity and mysticism.

In Samsara I combine the logic between performing arts and logic in film, between the realist world and the unreal world. I wanted to play with a world formed by our own imagination. How to build the world of performing arts in film, and film in the world of performing arts. This is what I think is most interesting about Samsara.

Garin Nugroho

SYNOPSIS

What is one willing to give up in order to fulfill their insatiable desires?

Following the internationally acclaimed Setan Jawa—which premiered in 2017 to a sold-out crowd at Esplanade—respected Indonesian director Garin Nugroho returns for the world premiere of Samsara, a stunning cinematic experience that marries film with live music.

Samsara follows the story of a man from an impoverished family who is rejected by the wealthy parents of the woman he loves. He strikes a bargain with the Monkey King, performing a dark ritual to gain wealth and marry the love of his life whose parents had rejected his proposal because of his poverty and low social class status. After he gains wealth and eventually marries her, the deal turns out to be a curse for her and their son, where the son must be given to the Monkey King and his mother has to breastfeed him and the other monkey infants periodically. Tragedy becomes reality when the son reaches a young age and wants to go back to the house to be with his mother, violating the boundaries between human and animals. Rooted in Indonesian mysticism, this is a universal narrative about the insatiable hunger to be what one is not, and the boundaries one is prepared to breach to realize this.

Like its predecessor Setan Jawa, Samsara is a “cine-concert” that draws from German black-and-white films from the 1920s as well as wayang (traditional Indonesian shadow puppetry). While the former featured an evocative silent film accompanied by live gamelan music and a Western classical orchestra, Samsara forgoes the orchestra for vibrant, live electronic music. The production marries this electronic soundscape with traditional Balinese performance elements like the gamelan orchestra, traditional dance, masks and wayang. The film and live performance stars two Asia-Pacific luminaries of the stage and screen, Indonesian film actor Ario Bayu and Indonesian-Australian dancer Juliet Widyasari Burnett.

Under the bold visionary eye of Garin Nugroho and the exceptional work of a powerhouse creative team, Samsara promises to be a bold and memorable cinematic experience, seamlessly bringing together the art forms, nuances, and traditions of Indonesia’s past and present.

SCENE DESCRIPTIONS

PROLOGUE

Darta and Sinta are children from two different worlds, yet they live side by side. Darta, a poor boy from a low-class bamboo-maker family, works in Sinta's household as their offering maker. Sinta, the daughter of a noble Balinese father and a foreign mother, always wanted what Darta had: the freedom to live and dance as he pleased, devoid of expectations. Over time, the bond between Darta and Sinta deepens from friendship to love.

MYSTERY OF HUMAN PATH

Years later, Darta saves enough money to propose to Sinta, a lifelong dream of his. However, Sinta's parents reject him in front of her, shattering his hopes. While Sinta expresses her sadness through her dance in loneliness, the trauma of rejection leads Darta to use the money he saved up to seek a quick path to wealth: a dark sacrificial monkey pact.

ACT 2

MYSTERY OF SHORTCUT

Darta goes to a temple where a dark shaman resides. A ritual is performed, and the gates open for Darta as he embarks on a mystical journey in search of the Monkey King. As he reaches the King's palace, he performs a dark ritual and makes a pact with the King. Upon returning home, he discovers gold in every place he looks. With newfound riches, he proposes to Sinta again, this time gaining her parents' approval. He presents Sinta with a golden lotus hairpin.

ACT 3

MYSTERY OF PARADOX

Initially, their marriage is a happy one, but Darta continues his dark rituals in secret. When Sinta eventually becomes pregnant and gives birth to their son, Wana, Darta reveals the pact's grim terms: they must sacrifice Wana to the Monkey King and Sinta must breastfeed Wana and all the monkey infants at the King's palace. Not adhering to the terms of the pact will result in the entire town being cursed to death. Although Sinta initially refuses, she finally concedes.

ACT 4

MYSTERY OF SACRIFICE

Sinta embarks on the mystical journey and gives Wana away when she arrives at the Monkey King's palace. Her life becomes consumed by serving the King's demands, breastfeeding Wana and the other infants. Sinta longs for her son Wana when she is not with him. When Wana reaches the age of a young man, he grows curious about his mother. Against the King's orders to stay at the palace, Wana follows his mother back to her home, where Darta finds him and furiously tells him to go away.

ACT 5

MYSTERY OF DENIAL

The Monkey King loves Sinta and asks her to stay at the palace, but Sinta rejects him out of her love towards Darta. As she returns home again, Wana ignores the King's warning to not breach the border between animal and human and follows his mother again secretly. Sinta's motherly love blinds her and she hides Wana at the back of her house, taking care of him daily, and becomes happier once again.

ACT 6

NOCTURNO

Wana's existence creates a mad monkey plague on the humans. The townspeople get possessed by a mystical disease and end up killing themselves.

EPILOGUE

Darta finally reaps his rewards. The townspeople gather and breach Darta's house to find Wana there. Joined by Darta, they decide to banish Wana from the town. En route, Sinta appears and begs for Darta to release Wana, while telling Wana to kiss Darta's feet to gain recognition as his son. Fearing for the curse and his life, Darta tries to kill Wana, but the Monkey King and his colony appear. A clash happens between the human villagers and the monkey colony. While the boundary between humans and animals may seem thin, ultimately, the humans demonstrate themselves to be beasts who are more savage than their animal counterparts.

NOTA PENGARAH

Bali pada awal abad ke-20, selepas Perang Dunia Pertama, telah menjadi destinasi menarik buat pelancong. Ia sebuah era di mana industri pelancongan dan moden berkembang pesat. Ia juga era di mana industri hiburan, aneka aliran pemikiran dan seniman muncul. Bali kemudian menjadi tempat di mana diva, seniman, penulis dan saintis berkumpul. Ahli antropologi, Margaret Mead, pelukis-penggubah Walter Spies, penulis Vicky Baum, pembikin filem Charlie Chaplin, pelukis Belanda Rudolf Bonnet, penulis dari Mexico Miguel Cavarrubias, dan penggubah dari Amerika, Collin McPhee—yang mempelopori gabungan orkestra Barat bersama gamelan tempatan Bali— adalah contoh tokoh global yang telah mengunjungi Bali dalam bertahun-tahun. Ada, yang seperti Bonnet, bahkan meluangkan sebahagian besar hidup mereka di sana.

Era ini menghasilkan pelbagai budaya dan aliran pemikiran di kalangan penduduk setempat, yang melahirkan pelbagai idea baru. Salah satu hasilnya adalah ciptaan stail yang dikenali sebagai realisme ajaib Bali yang menyerlah dalam lukisan Walter Spies. Realisme ajaib yang masih berkembang dan membina di Eropah, menemui jalannya di wilayah Asia dan Afrika. Justeru, realisme ajaib Bali adalah campuran stail seni pra moden dan moden yang disertai dengan mistik Bali. Hasilnya adalah sesuatu yang unik yang tidak dapat digambarkan dengan mudah.

Sebaliknya, kebangkitan industri pelancongan bersama pembangunan kebudayaan dan penyelidikan yang meningkat di Bali, memupuk kemunculan seniman Bali yang berbakat merentasi pelbagai disiplin artistik, termasuk tokoh global tersohor, antaranya seperti (pengukir), Ketut Mario, dan Nyi Ketut Reneng (penari).

Samsara berlatarkan era ini, di mana gabungan era pra-moden dan moden bercampur aduk dalam dimensi realisme ajaib. Khususnya, Bali dipilih sebagai latar belakan sebuah filem pada tahun 1930-an kerana ia menggambarkan tempat di mana pelbagai gaya artistik bertembung. Filem ini merakamkan interaksi rumit gaya hidup dan corak orang ramai dalam tempoh ini, merangkumi aspek seperti fesyen, seni bina dan seni. Melalui penggambaran Bali pada tahun 1930-an, Samsara tampil sebagai dunia menawan yang dicirikan oleh gabungan budaya dan gaya realisme ajaib yang berbeza.

Dunia Bali padat dengan realisme ajaib. Yang boleh dilihat dan ghaib. Ciri ini masih relevan dengan kehidupan di seluruh Indonesia secara umum, di mana yang boleh dilihat dan ghaib sama wujud, menimbulkan perasaan aneh dan mistik.

Dalam Samsara, saya menggabungkan logik antara seni persembahan dan logik dalam filem, antara dunia realistik dan dunia tidak nyata. Saya mahu bermain dengan dunia dalam bayangan kita sendiri. Bagaimana membina dunia seni persembahan dalam filem dan filem dalam seni persembahan. Itulah yang saya fikir paling menarik tentang Samsara.

Garin Nugroho

SINOPSIS

Apakah yang seseorang itu sanggup berkorban untuk memenuhi keinginan mereka yang tidak pernah puas?

Menyusuli karya Setan Jawa yang diiktiraf di peringkat antarabangsa- yang ditayangkan pada 2017 kepada penonton di mana tiket habis dijual di Esplanade—pengarah Indonesia yang dihormati, Garin Nugroho, kembali untuk tayangan perdana dunia, Samsara, satu pengalaman sinematik menakjubkan yang menggabungkan filem bersama muzik secara langsung.

Samsara mengisahkan cerita seorang lelaki daripada keluarga miskin yang tidak mendapat restu daripada ibu bapa kaya wanita yang beliau cintai. Beliau tawar-menawar bersama Raja Monyet, melakukan ritual gelap untuk mendapatkan kekayaan dan mengahwini kekasihnya, di mana ibu bapa wanita itu sudah menolak lamarannya kerana status kemiskinan dan kelas sosial rendahnya.

Selepas beliau menjadi kaya dan akhirnya mengahwini kekasihnya itu, perjanjian bersama Raja Monyet itu menukar menjadi sumpah untuk wanita itu dan anak mereka kerana mereka perlu memberikan anak mereka kepada Raja Monyet dan wanita itu mesti menyusukan anak mereka dan juga anak-anak Raja Monyet.

Tragedi menjadi realiti apabila anak mereka, pada usia kecil, mahu pulang rumah bersama ibunya, melanggar sempadan antara manusia dan binatang. Berakar umbi daripada mistik Indonesia, ini adalah naratif universal tentang rasa tidak puas untuk mendapatkan sesuatu yang terhalang dan sempadan yang seseorang sanggup langgar untuk merealisasikan keinginannya.

Seperti karya sebelum ini, Setan Jawa, Samsara adalah sebuah “konsert pawagam” yang berpengaruh daripada filem hitam dan putih dari tahun 1920-an serta wayang (persesembahan wayang kulit tradisional Indonesian). Sementara Setan Jawa memaparkan sebuah filem senyap yang evokatif dengan irungan orkestra yang memainkan muzik gamelan secara langsung, Samsara menggantikan orkestra dengan muzik elektronik yang rancak dan menghiburkan. Penerbitan ini menggabungkan skap bunyi elektronik bersama elemen persesembahan tradisional Bali seperti orkestra gamelan, tarian tradisional, topeng dan wayang. Filem dan persesembahan secara langsung dibintangi dua bakat hebat dari yang pernah tampil di atas pentas di layar perak, pelakon filem Indonesia, Ario Bayu dan penari Indonesia-Australia dancer, Juliet Burnett.

Di bawah pimpinan Garin Nugroho dan usaha luar biasa pasukan kreatifnya, Samsara menjanjikan pengalaman sinematik yang berani dan paling diingati, menyatukan aneka jenis seni, nuansa dan tradisi lama dan baru Indonesia.

PENERANGAN ADEGAN

PROLOG

Darta dan Sinta adalah kanak-kanak daripada dua dunia berbeza, namun mereka tinggal di kawasan sama. Darta, seorang budak lelaki miskin daripada keluarga kelas rendah yang membuat buluh, bekerja di rumah Sinta sebagai pembuat berhala mereka. Sinta, anak perempuan kepada seorang bapa dari Bali dan ibu, seorang warga asing, inginkan Darta mempunyai kebebasan untuk tinggal dan menari sesukanya, tanpa jangkaan. Lama-kelamaan, Darta dan Sinta menjalin persahabatan sehingga mereka jatuh cinta.

MISTERI PERJALANAN MANUSIA

Bertahun-tahun kemudian, Darta menjimat cukup wang untuk melamar Sinta, impian sepanjang hayatnya. Namun, ibu bapa Sinta menolak Darta di depan Sinta, menghancurkan harapannya. Sementara Sinta melahirkan kesedihannya menerusi tarian secara keseorangan, trauma ditolak itu menyebabkan Darta untuk menggunakan wang simpanannya untuk mencari jalan pintas untuk menjadi kaya: berpakat untuk berkorban dengan monyet secara haram.

BABAK 2

MISTERI JALAN PINTAS

Darta pergi ke sebuah kuil, di mana seorang bomoh tinggal. Satu upacara dilakukan dan pagar dibuka untuk Darta kian beliau melalui satu perjalanan mistik untuk mencari Raja Monyet. Apabila beliau sampai di istana, beliau melakukan satu upacara haram dan membuat perjanjian bersama Raja Monyet. Selepas itu, beliau pulang rumah dan menemui emas di setiap tempat beliau lihat. Dengan kekayaan baru itu, beliau melamar Sinta semula dan kali lini mendapat restu ibu bapanya. Beliau menghadiahkan Sinta sebuah pin rambut emas dalam bentuk bunga teratai.

MISTERI PARADOKS

Pada awalnya, mereka mengalami rumah tangga yang bahagia tetapi Darta meneruskan upacara haramnya secara berahsia. Apabila Sinta kemudian mengandung dan melahirkan anak mereka, Wana, Darta mendedahkan syarat-syarat pakatan suram itu: mereka mesti mengorbankan anak mereka, Wana, kepada Raja Monyet dan Sinta mesti menyusukan Wana dan semua anak-anak monyet di istana Raja. Jika mereka tidak memenuhi syarat-syarat pakatan itu, seluruh bandar mereka akan disumpah sampai mati. Walaupun Sinta awalnya enggan menuruti syarat itu, beliau akhirnya bersetuju.

MISTERI PENGORBANAN

Sinta mula menceburi perjalanan mistik dan memberikan Wana apabila beliau tiba di istana Raja Monyet. Beliau kemudian meluangkan hidupnya, memenuhi permintaan Raja Monyet, menyusukan Wana dan anak-anak monyet lain. Sinta mahu anaknya, Wana, bersamanya apabila Wana tiada di sisinya. Apabila Wana meningkat dewasa, Wana mula mempunyai keinginan untuk mengetahui siapa ibunya. Menentang perintah Raja untuk tinggal di istana, Wana ikut ibunya pulang ke rumah, di mana Darta menemui dan menghalaunya.

MISTERI PENAFIAN

Raja Monyet menyayangi Sinta dan mintanya tinggal di istana, tetapi Sinta menolaknya kerana sayangkan Darta. Apabila beliau pulang ke rumah sekali lagi, Wana tidak menghiraukan amaran Raja agar tidak melanggar sempadan antara haiwan dan manusia dan ikut ibunya secara senyap. Kasih sayang seorang ibu membuat Sinta menyembunyikan Wana di belakang rumahnya, menjaganya setiap hari dan beliau kembali gembira.

BABAK 6

NOCTURNO

Kewujudan Wana mengakibatkan wabak monyet menular di kalangan manusia. Penduduk bandar dijangkiti penyakit mistik itu yang akhirnya membunuh diri sendiri.

EPILOG

Darta akhirnya mendapat ganjarannya. Penduduk bandar berkumpul dan menyerang rumah Darta dan menemui Wana di sana. Darta menurut serta dan mereka membuat keputusan untuk menghalau Wana daripada bandar itu. Dalam perjalanan, Sinta muncul dan memohon Darta untuk melepaskan Wana, sambil memberitahu Wana untuk mencium kaki Darta supaya mendapat restu sebagai anaknya. Oleh kerana takut terhadap sumpah dan khuatir tentang kehidupannya, Darta cuba membunuh Wana, tetapi Raja Monyet dan koloninya muncul. Satu pertempuran berlaku antara penduduk kampung manusia dan koloni monyet. Walaupun sempadan antara manusia dan haiwan tampil tipis, manusia telah membuktikan bahawa mereka lebih buas dan kejam daripada haiwan.
