About Saints Chorale

The Saints Chorale was established in 1994, with a strong belief in the musical development of every chorister, the power of communication through music, and the importance of having fun. The choir continually strives for musical and choral excellence.

Under the leadership of Mr Foong Hak Luen, the Saints Chorale fosters a deep love and appreciation for choral music in its members and audiences alike. The choir performs publicly every two years, with notable performances including Viva Vox V: The Living Voice in 2014, Esplanade's Limelight series in 2016 and 2018, and the Singapore Bicentennial Commemoration Concert in 2019.

The Choir has also participated in numerous local and international competitions, achieving commendable results. Since 2013, the Saints Chorale has consistently earned certificates of Distinction at the Singapore Youth Festival Arts Presentation for Choirs.
