About Yishun Town Voices and Chorale

Yishun Town Voices and Chorale (YTVC) is a vibrant and dedicated choral group committed to nurturing passionate, well-rounded performers. With a deep appreciation for choral singing, music, and the arts, YTVC provides its members with a platform to grow as artists while fostering a lifelong love for music and collaboration. The ensemble takes pride in cultivating a supportive and enriching environment where choristers can develop their skills and creativity.

In addition to their school performances, YTVC actively participates in prestigious events such as the Singapore Youth Festival and engages in meaningful choral exchanges with other schools. These experiences not only elevate the artistic capabilities of the group but also allow them to connect with diverse audiences, celebrating the universal language of music. The group's involvement in community events further reflects their commitment to sharing their passion and making a positive impact beyond the school setting.

Recent achievements highlight YTVC's dedication to excellence and community engagement. In 2024, the ensemble staged their very own highly anticipated concert, Meliora by YTVC & Friends, which showcased their artistry and collaboration. In 2023, they participated in the Blossom of Colours PassionArts Festival. Their commitment to inclusivity was further demonstrated through their participation in The Purple Parade alongside ASPN Chaoyang School, celebrating diversity through the power of music.
