

Nusantara Open Circle 2026 – Open Call

Nusantara Open Circle is a playwright developmental programme presented by Esplanade and produced by Main Tulis Group. The programme encourages and supports the development of new scripts in Bahasa Melayu, Bahasa Indonesia, or Malay and Indonesia-related dialects.

Three works will be selected for this development phase, and each selected playwright will be paired with an experienced mentor.

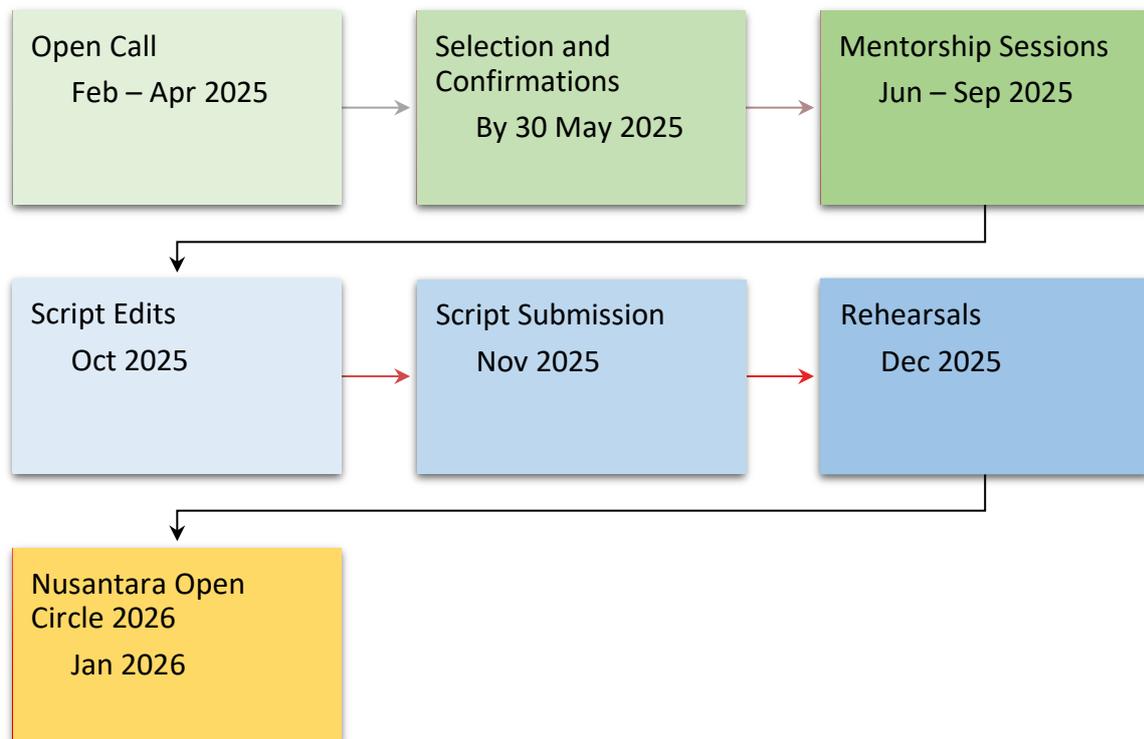

As part of the application, playwrights must submit a brand-new short script on the theme of “Lapar”.

You are encouraged to interpret this theme in any way, and the relevance of your script to the theme must be explained in your application.

Through group workshops and one-on-one mentorship sessions, scripts will be developed for a dramatised reading in Singapore in January 2026 at Esplanade as part of Nusantara Open Circle 2026.

While this residency is particularly suitable for emerging playwrights, all writers who believe they can benefit from mentoring and guidance are welcomed to apply.

Timeline for Nusantara Open Circle

There will be three mentor-led group workshops that selected participants will have to attend between June to September 2025.

In addition, participants must meet with their specific mentor at least three times between June to September 2025 to work on and receive guidance for their scripts.

A stipend of SGD$300 will be provided to each writer for the mentorship phase between June to November.

A separate fee of SGD$700 will be provided for their participation in the Nusantara Open Circle 2026, to be held in Singapore in January 2026. For playwrights in Malaysia and Indonesia, flights and accommodation in Singapore will be covered during the event period.

About Nusantara Open Circle

Nusantara Open Circle (NOC) is a transnational exchange of new ideas and writings from Indonesia, Malaysia and Singapore. NOC presents a series of dramatised readings from works in progress of an exciting playwright from each country, written primarily in Bahasa Melayu and Bahasa Indonesia and performed by Singapore actors. Each read will be accompanied by a feedback session where attendees can learn more about the artist and their craft while sharing their responses to the work.

NOC is a three-year programme starting from 2025. Besides the flagship programme that takes place in January, the development phase comprises open calls for new plays in development, and mentorships with the region's most notable playwrights.

Nusantara Open Circle is presented by Esplanade and produced by Main Tulis Group. Our collaborators Panas Panas Theatre from Malaysia and Indonesia Dramatic Reading Festival from Indonesia are consulted about various aspects of the programme.

Main Tulis Group

Founded in 2016, Main Tulis Group (MTG) is Singapore's only collective that works on developing English and Malay plays. The group organises regular readings of works-in-progress known as Open Circle sessions, and is known for its dramatised readings showcase ETA : 9 MIN. MTG has worked with institutions such as Centre 42, Esplanade, Singapore Writers Festival and the National University of Singapore, organising readings, workshops and outreach events on writing.
