About Crescent Girls' School Symphonic Band

The Crescent Girls' School Symphonic Band was established in 1967 and has played a key role in the school's music education journey. With a commitment to excellence and growth, the band has garnered numerous accolades at prestigious platforms such as the Singapore Youth Festival and the Singapore International Band Festival. Guided by their motto "Et Bientôt le Meilleur" ("The Best is Yet to Be"), the band continues to nurture generations of students, inspiring them to excel musically and share their passion with the wider community.
