Within just three years of its formation, under the direction of Mr Toh Ban Sheng, it made history as the first neighbourhood school choir to clinch a Gold Award at the 1997 Singapore Youth Festival (SYF) Choral Competition. The choir has since maintained a stellar track record, consistently garnering top accolades, including three consecutive Gold with Honours awards.

On the international stage, the choir has earned numerous Gold diplomas and prestigious accolades, including the Repertoire Prize, the Outstanding Performance Prize for Contemporary Work, and various Conductor's Prizes. Their artistry has been showcased across the globe, with tours spanning Australia, the Czech Republic, France, Germany, New Zealand, Poland, Slovakia, and the United Kingdom.
