About Tanjong Katong Girls' School Symphonic Band

Established in 1990, the Tanjong Katong Girls' School (TKGS) Symphonic Band has built a strong tradition of excellence in music-making, consistently attaining Distinction at the Singapore Youth Festival (SYF) Arts Presentation. Beyond SYF, the band has been invited to perform at numerous public platforms including the Istana Open House, Band Fiesta and Limelight at Esplanade.

Over the years, the band has also participated in cross-cultural exchanges with musicians from the United States and Japan. These include exchange programmes with the Aichi Meiden High School Symphonic Band and joint concerts with the Edina High School Band, among others.

2026 marked 36 years of history of the TKGS Symphonic Band. The band continues to partner with its alumni in the shared pursuit and love of music-making, while nurturing the next generation of young musicians.
