

Create your own alpana!

Did you know?

Commonly known as rangoli, this practice of drawing sacred art using materials such as sand or flour can be found throughout India. It is believed that these patterns bring prosperity into the home. In Bangladesh, this form is known as alpana or alpona, and is frequently drawn using white paint or a mix of rice flour and water.

Create your own alpana by filling in the lines with white acrylic or poster paint!

Watch how this pattern is created here!

1 Esplanade Drive, Singapore 038981 | Customer Experience Hotline: 6828 8377